Hospice of Michigan to Host Healing Hearts Luncheon

Traverse City, Michigan, January 28, 2014 – Hospice of Michigan will host a Healing Hearts luncheon in Traverse City on Valentine’s Day, Feb. 14.

During the luncheon, participants will discuss the journey through mourning and learn coping techniques. Kathryn Holl, grief support services manager, and the Rev. Ron White, spiritual care advisor, will lead the discussion and answer questions.

The session will take place at HOM’s Bay View Center at 10850 E Traverse Highway, Suite 1155 from 12-1:30 p.m. This program is free and open to the community. Advance registration is required.

For more information or to register, please contact Holl at 231.929.1557.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state of Michigan. The non-profit organization cares for more than 1,400 patients each day in 56 counties, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers innovative programs to enhance the quality of care for people at the end of life, education programs for physicians and healthcare professionals, caregiver education materials, cultural diversity programs for end-of-life care, and research and education programs at the Maggie Allesee Center for Innovation. For more information, call Hospice of Michigan’s CARE Center 24/7 at 888.247.5701 or go to www.hom.org.
