Hospice of Michigan to Host Hope After Loss Luncheon

Gaylord, Michigan, March 25, 2014 – Hospice of Michigan will host a luncheon and presentation for those who have moved through the immediate impact of grief on Tuesday, April 8.

The educational presentation and luncheon will address the difficulty of coping with the loss of a friend or loved one and provide a better understanding of the grief process. Discussion topics include:

- What makes it difficult to grieve?
- How do I adjust to change?
- What is hope and how do I keep it alive?

The luncheon and presentation will be held from 12-1 p.m. at BJ's Restaurant, Rental and Catering, 990 N. Center Ave. This program is free and open to the community. Prior registration is required.

For more information or to sign up for the luncheon and discussion, please call Briana Thorold at 989.705.2603 or e-mail her at bthorold@hom.org.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The non-profit cares for more than 1,400 patients each day in 56 counties across Michigan, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and healthcare professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute.
