Hospice of Michigan Announces
Living On Grief Support Group

Ann Arbor, Michigan, February 26, 2014 – Hospice of Michigan continues to host a Living On Grief Support Group in Ann Arbor with the next meeting scheduled for Monday, March 10.

The group offers participants the opportunity to express feelings and share experiences related to loss of a loved one in a supportive, caring and non-judgmental environment. This is an ongoing group where grief and loss topics are addressed as they arise, depending upon the interests of those attending this group.

The group meets on the second and fourth Monday of each month from 6:30-8 p.m. at the HOM office, 555 Briarwood Circle, Suite 140 in Ann Arbor. This group is free and open to the community. Advance registration is appreciated.

For more information, please contact Margie Martin, grief support services manager, at 734.769.5821.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The non-profit cares for more than 1,400 patients each day in 56 counties across Michigan, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and healthcare professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute.
