Hospice of Michigan Announces
Living On Grief Support Group

Saginaw, Michigan, April 30 – Hospice of Michigan will host a Living On Grief Support Group in Saginaw beginning Monday, May 5.

The group will offer participants the opportunity to express feelings and share experiences related to loss of a loved one in a supportive, caring and non-judgmental environment. This will be an ongoing group where grief and loss topics are addressed as they arise, depending upon the interests of those attending this group.

The group will meet on the first and third Monday of each month from 6:30-8 p.m. at HOM's Saginaw office, 3995 Fashion Square Blvd., Suite 1. This group is free, open to the community and prior registration is not required.

For more information, please contact Marcy Tremain-Nunneley at 989.358.4295.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state of Michigan. The non-profit organization cares for more than 1,400 patients each day in 56 counties, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers innovative programs to enhance the quality of care for people at the end of life, education programs for physicians and healthcare professionals, caregiver education materials, cultural diversity programs for end-of-life care, and research and education programs at the Maggie Allesee Center for Innovation. For more information, call Hospice of Michigan's CARE Center 24/7 at 888.247.5701 or go to www.hom.org.
