Hospice of Michigan to Host
Remembering, Honoring and Missing our Mothers

Traverse City, Michigan, April 29, 2014 – Hospice of Michigan will host Remembering, Honoring and Missing our Mothers on Friday, May 9.

Led by Kathryn Holl, HOM grief support services manager, the event will give participants an opportunity to reflect on the lives of their mothers and significant women in their lives who have died. Guests are asked to bring a story and a picture of the woman they are honoring.

The session will take place at HOM's Traverse City office in the Bay View Center at 10850 E. Traverse Highway, Suite 1155 from 12-1:30 p.m. Participants will be provided a light meal.

This program is free and open to the community. Advance registration is required. For more information or to register, please contact Holl at 231.929.1557.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The non-profit cares for more than 1,400 patients each day in 56 counties across Michigan, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and healthcare professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
