

For Immediate Release

Contact: Mary Ann Sabo
Sabo Public Relations, 616.485.1432
maryann@sabo-pr.com

or

Kristin Lynn
Sabo Public Relations, 248.709.1405
kristin@sabopr.com

Hospice of Michigan to Host Valentine's Day Remembrance

Gaylord, Michigan, January 29, 2014 – Hospice of Michigan will host a Valentine's Day Remembrance celebrating love and life in Gaylord on Monday, Feb. 10.

Participants are encouraged to bring a special memento, memorabilia or a story about a deceased loved one to share at the event. Don Moyer will provide musical entertainment.

The celebration, dedicated to past loves and present lives, will take place in the living area of the Brook Retirement Community, 1023 Hayes Rd. at 1 p.m. This program is free and open to the community.

For more information or to register, please contact Briana Thorold at 989.705.2603.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state of Michigan. The non-profit organization cares for more than 1,400 patients each day in 56 counties, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers innovative programs to enhance the quality of care for people at the end of life, education programs for physicians and healthcare professionals, caregiver education materials, cultural diversity programs for end-of-life care, and research and education programs at the Maggie Allesee Center for Innovation. For more information, call Hospice of Michigan's CARE Center 24/7 at 888.247.5701 or go to www.hom.org.

###