Hospice of Michigan to Host Healing Hearts Luncheon

Traverse City, Michigan, January 15, 2015 – Hospice of Michigan will host a Healing Hearts luncheon on Friday, Feb. 13 in Traverse City.

The event will include a light lunch and the opportunity for participants to discuss the journey through mourning, learn coping techniques and remember and celebrate the lives of those they love. Kathryn Holl, HOM's grief support services manager, will lead the discussion and answer questions.

The session will take place noon to 1 p.m. at HOM's Bay View Professional Center, 10850 E. Traverse Highway, Suite 1155. This program is free and open to the community. Advance registration is required.

For more information or to register, please contact Holl at 231.929.1557.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for more than 1,700 patients each day, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
