Hospice of Michigan to Host Remembering Our Mothers

Traverse City, Michigan, April 17, 2015 – Hospice of Michigan will host Remembering Our Mothers on Saturday, May 9.

Led by HOM volunteers Rev. Peggy Byland and Joanie Abbot, the event will give participants an opportunity to reflect on the lives of their mothers and significant women in their lives who have died. Guests are asked to bring a story and a picture of the woman they are honoring.

The session will take place at HOM's Traverse City office in the Bay View Center at 10850 E. Traverse Highway, Suite 1155 from 11 a.m. to noon.

This program is free and open to the community. Advance registration is required. For more information or to register, please contact Holl at 231.929.1557.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for more than 1,700 patients each day, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
