Hospice of Michigan Announces
Living On Grief Support Group

Traverse City, Michigan, August 31, 2015 – Hospice of Michigan will host a Living On Grief Support Group in Traverse City beginning in September.

The group will offer participants the opportunity to express feelings and share experiences related to loss of a loved one in a supportive, caring and non-judgmental environment. This will be an ongoing group where grief and loss topics are addressed as they arise, depending upon the interests of those attending this group.

The group will meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month from 7-9 p.m. at First Congregational Church, 6105 Center Road, Traverse City. This group is free, open to the community and prior registration is not required.

For more information, please contact Kathryn Holl at 231.929.1557 or email kholl@hom.org.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for more than 1,700 patients each day, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
