Hospice of Michigan to Hold Time of Remembrance Memorial Service

Cadillac, Michigan, October 26, 2015 – Hospice of Michigan will hold a Time of Remembrance memorial service on Thursday, Nov. 19 to allow those who have lost a loved one a time to reflect and to remember.

The one-hour program will feature music, readings, poems and an opportunity to share special memories of loved ones in a warm, caring environment. Refreshments will be served after the program.

Time of Remembrance will be held at 6:30 p.m. at Curry House at 5858 S. 47 Road. The memorial service is free and open to the community.

For more information or to register, call Tangela Zielinski at 231.527.0913.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for more than 1,700 patients each day, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
