Hospice of Michigan to Host When Families Grieve Program

Wayne, Michigan, October 13, 2015 – Hospice of Michigan will host a When Families Grieve Program on Thursday, Nov. 19 in Wayne.

A program for the whole family, When Families Grieve offers an opportunity for both adults and children to learn about techniques to deal with loss. Adults will gather to watch a video followed by discussion on how to help children through loss. Children will meet separately to do an art project and have discussion on feelings.

The session will take place at 6 p.m. at New Hope Church, 3640 Michigan Ave. Dinner will be provided. This program is free and open to the community. Advance registration is required.

For more information or to register, please contact Margie Martin at 734.769.5828.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for more than 1,700 patients each day, raising more than $4 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including At Home Support™, our advanced illness management program, community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
