Hospice of Michigan to Present on How Memories Can Help Through Loss

Milan, Michigan, February 22, 2016 – Hospice of Michigan will host Winter Warmth, a presentation on the healing effects of cherishing the memories of loved ones, in March.

“Looking back on good times and warm memories validates the importance of how our loved ones lives shaped and touched us,” said Margie Martin, grief support manager. “Through the program, we will discuss how reflecting on positive memories can help us heal.”

The presentation will be held from 11:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 2 at Milan Senior Center, 45 Neckel Court. Hot cocoa, tea and coffee will be served.

This program is free and open to the community, but registration is required.

For more information or to register please contact Martin at 734.769.5821.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for more than 1,800 patients each day, raising more than $5 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. For more information, call 888.247.5701 or visit www.hom.org.
