Hospice of Michigan to host free screening of Being Mortal on April 18 at Gaylord Evangelical Free Church

GAYLORD, Mich. (March 31, 2017) – Join Hospice of Michigan for a free screening and discussion of the PBS FRONTLINE documentary, Being Mortal, from 6 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, April 18 at Gaylord Evangelical Free Church, located at 1649 M-32 in Gaylord. The 54 minute film is based on the best-selling book by Atul Gawande, M.D.

The film explores the hopes of terminally ill patients and their families, investigates the practice of caring for the dying, and delves into the relationships between patients and their doctors.

Following the screening, moviegoers are invited to a special panel session with experts to learn how to take steps to identify and communicate wishes about end-of-life goals and preferences.

Panelists include:

- Jeanne Hough, LMSW, director of care management at Otsego Memorial Hospital
- Dr. Michele LaFave, MD, medical director at Hospice of Michigan
- Pamela Lynch, ANP, internal medicine nurse practitioner at Otsego Memorial Hospital
- Pastor Jim Mathis, associate pastor at Gaylord Evangelical Free Church
- Paul Slough, estate planning attorney with Kirkpatrick, DuBois and Slough PLC

Hospice of Michigan partnered with Otsego Memorial Hospital to bring this documentary to the Gaylord area.

For more information about the free screening, please contact Rachael Olson at 989.705.2603 or rolson@hom.org. To RSVP, please visit <http://hom.convio.net/beingmortal>.

About Hospice of Michigan

A nationally recognized leader in end-of-life care, Hospice of Michigan is the original – and largest – hospice in the state. The nonprofit cares for nearly 1,800 patients each day, raising more than $5 million each year to cover the cost of care for the uninsured and underinsured. HOM offers a broad range of services to enhance the quality of life at the end of life, including community-based palliative care and pediatric care programs. HOM provides grief support and counseling, caregiver education and support, and education programs for physicians and health care professionals through its research, training and education arm, the Hospice of Michigan Institute. In January 2016, HOM joined forces with Arbor Hospice and Palliative Care, strengthening the mission of nonprofit hospice in Michigan to ensure patients and their caregivers receive the highest quality of care.
